

Where Have all the Flowers Gone?

A modern folk-style song. The melody and the first three verses were written by Pete Seeger in 1955 and published in Sing Out! magazine. Additional verses were added by Joe Hickerson in May 1960.

[A] Where have all the [F#m] flowers gone? [D] Long time [E7] passing
[A] Where have all the [F#m] flowers gone? [Bm7] Long time [E7] ago
[A] Where have all the [F#m] flowers gone?
[D] Young girls have picked them [E7] every one
[D] When will they [A] ever learn?
[D] When will they [E7] ever [A] learn? [Asus] [Asus]

[A] Where have all the [F#m] young girls gone? [D] Long time [E7] passing
[A] Where have all the [F#m] young girls gone? [Bm7] Long time [E7] ago
[A] Where have all the [F#m] young girls gone?
[D] Gone to young men [E7] every one
[D] When will they [A] ever learn?
[D] When will they [E7] ever [A] learn? [Asus] [Asus]

[A] Where have all the [F#m] young men gone? [D] Long time [E7] passing
[A] Where have all the [F#m] young men gone? [Bm7] Long time [E7] ago
[A] Where have all the [F#m] young men gone?
[D] Gone for soldiers [E7] every one
[D] When will they [A] ever learn?
[D] When will they [E7] ever [A] learn? [Asus] [Asus]

[A] Where have all the [F#m] soldiers gone? [D] Long time [E7] passing
[A] Where have all the [F#m] soldiers gone? [Bm7] Long time [E7] ago
[A] Where have all the [F#m] soldiers gone?
[D] Gone to graveyards [E7] every one
[D] When will they [A] ever learn?
[D] When will they [E7] ever [A] learn? [Asus] [Asus]

[A] Where have all the [F#m] graveyards gone? [D] Long time [E7] passing
[A] Where have all the [F#m] graveyards gone? [Bm7] Long time [E7] ago
[A] Where have all the [F#m] graveyards gone?
[D] Gone to flowers [E7] every one
[D] When will we [A] ever learn?
[D] When will we [E7] ever [A] learn? [Asus] [Asus]

Repeat 1st verse, end on A on the word "learn".

